

Environmental Policy

MSA Damper srl, which designs and manufactures shock absorbers for the automotive, railway and special applications sectors, in the deep conviction that business activities must be responsibly combined with the principles of environmental protection and protection, maintains an Environmental Management System. compliant with the requirements of the UNI EN ISO 14001: 2015 standard.

The organization operates in an evolved and dynamic technological context, which involves customers, suppliers and other interested parties, in a national and international geographical area.

MSA Damper is therefore committed to:

- Ensure full and timely compliance with its compliance obligations and scrupulous compliance with any environmental requirements in force applicable to its organization
- Guarantee its commitment to environmental protection, through a design developed with a view to the product cycle, and to the prevention of pollution, by reducing the environmental impacts associated with its products and services.
- Ensure the monitoring of its environmental performance and the adoption of measures to reduce the withdrawal of resources in relation to the unit of product manufactured.
- Ensure the implementation of differentiation and optimal management of waste generated by its processes and activities.
- Ensure the adoption of measures to keep the impacts associated with possible environmental emergency situations under control.
- Ensure awareness and promotion of the involvement of its staff and external suppliers of this environmental policy are implemented in a process of growth and cultural development of the company
- Guarantee the commitment to the continuous improvement of its Management System and its environmental performance through the application of the best available and economically feasible technologies and through the maintenance of a synergistic model of organizational management integrated with the principles of quality and health and safety in the workplace.